SUBJECT: Nevada State Employee Recognition Week

Nevada will join states across the nation in celebrating Public Service Recognition Week, May 3 - 7, 2010. This week is designated annually to celebrate the numerous contributions of our public employees and to educate the community on how State workers make life better for citizens. State employees have faced many challenges in the past few years as a result of the economic downturn. It is extremely important to let them know their efforts and sacrifices in the workplace are appreciated.

Please take this opportunity to plan at least one activity to recognize employees within your agency. Activities should occur sometime during Public Service Recognition Week, preferably on Wednesday, May 5, which has been designated as State Employee Recognition Day. There are many activities you can do that require little or no money but can have an important positive impact on morale.

Attached is a list of ideas to assist you in planning. We are also including posters for you to display in a prominent area. The Governor will be issuing a proclamation declaring May 3 – 7, 2010 as Nevada State Employees Recognition Week. A copy of this year’s proclamation will be distributed electronically to all employees on Thursday, April 29, 2010. Please make arrangements for these to be distributed to employees that do not have access to email. These materials will also be available for you on the DOP website at www.dop nv.gov.
The Department of Personnel will be developing a composite of Nevada recognition activities that can be shared with other states across the nation. I am therefore asking each agency to send a brief description of your planned activities to me at thienhaus@dop.nv.gov or to our Public Information Officer, Lesley Henrie at lhenrie@dop.nv.gov before Friday, April 23.

We look forward to hearing about your agency’s events and we appreciate you joining us in expressing appreciation to all of the Nevada State employees that do a wonderful service for our citizens every day.

If you have questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact Lesley Henrie at 775-684-0113.
SUGGESTED RECOGNITION ACTIVITIES

NO COST ACTIVITIES

- Thank each employee personally. If you can’t thank them in person, draft a hand-written note, send an e-mail, or make a phone call.
- Write a letter of recommendation or commendation to be placed in the employee’s personnel file.
- Display a “Hall of Fame” – collection of photos of recognized employees displayed in a prominent place.
- Establish a “Walk of Fame.” Post complimentary correspondence from customers.
- Post a “Recognition Bulletin Board” in each department or division and encourage employees to write accolades about coworkers.
- Feature state employees on the state Web site for their community work or excellence on the job.
- Ask a senior manager to attend a staff meeting when recognizing employees.
- Invite a local dignitary or motivational speaker for an event at the office.
- If you have a public information officer, have them contact your local newspaper and provide them with a news article or suggested story idea on State Employee Recognition Day. Ask them to feature one or two of your employees using quotes or pictures.
- Choose an off-site location and plan a “change of venue” work location with lunch, games, and prizes donated by local merchants.
- Invite your customers or employees of “sister” agencies to visit your offices for an after-work drop in to get to know each other better.

Some of the most important recognition activities are free!

- Challenge another division or agency to a softball game or other sporting event and invite agency employees and families.
- Offer a dress-down day to state employees.
- Offer a month of free parking.
SUGGESTED RECOGNITION ACTIVITIES

Low Cost Activities

- Use your agency’s desktop publisher or graphic artist to develop posters, banners, and signs to display in a prominent place.
- Prepare a scrapbook that details achievements throughout the year.
- Make a scrapbook of complimentary letters and notes to agency employees from customers. Display scrapbook in a prominent place.
- Hang banners with an encouraging message to state employees.
- Award a “traveling trophy” that is given to a different employee each year.
- Award certificates or plaques.
- Establish a permanent recognition award and name it after an outstanding employee.
- Provide mugs, pens, t-shirts, etc. with a team or agency logo.
- Send flowers.
- Give gift certificates for books or CDs.
- Provide movie tickets.
- Enroll employee(s) in a seminar or additional training.
- Purchase items such as planners and/or portfolios, business card holders, special nameplates, or clocks.
- Provide office accessories.
- Distribute employee recognition day buttons or ribbons to wear.
- Give away a spa gift certificate.
- Host an on-site Health Fair. Offer health screenings, body massages, health talks, health products and free samples.
- Plan a Family Fitness Walk. Invite employees and their families to participate in a walk, perhaps around the State Capitol on Friday evening or Saturday or Sunday. Provide refreshments and entertainment for an hour after the walk.

Past Nevada Agency Activities

- The Department of Public Safety hosted a raffle with proceeds going to Employee of the Year awards.
- The Public Utilities Commission management staff visited each employee individually and served him or her dessert from a traveling “Ice Cream Wagon” (a transformed computer cart that acted as an ice cream smorgasbord).
- Business and Industry sponsored a “Top Ten Reasons I Enjoy Working at B&I” contest. Winning entries won gift cards and were compiled in a colorful flyer sent to all staff.
- The Department of Corrections chose a circus theme with game booths, popcorn, cotton candy and snow cones. Prizes were donated for the games.
- Motor Pool held a barbeque luncheon and the Administrator provided each employee with a thank you card.
